

I Create Content - Writer for Hire

I am a writer.

I can create captivating content to meet your custom criteria... or so, I would have you believe.

www.paufler.net is my website.

On said website, you will find plenty of writing examples and a list of the properties I am currently looking to monetize (mostly fantasy farces and silly science fiction adventures).

If interested and the price is right, I am willing sell, rent, or lease my existing material.

However, the main purpose of this posting is to offer my services on a work for hire basis, to find partner(s) for collaborative project(s), and/or to contribute my efforts to your existing framework in exchange for a piece of the action (i.e. equity and/or other valuable cash prizes).

Check out my website and if you find what I have to offer compelling, please respond to this ad, letting me know:

What are you offering?

What you want in return?

The following is mainly included so that those searching for specific terms or services will get my ad in their results. It's not a limited list (and there is only so much range to my 'writing voice', so seriously, check out my website first to see if we're a match). But all that said, I'm more than happy to consider working on Short Stories, Novels, Plays, Movies, Scripts, Books, and so on; Personal Biographies & Life Stories; Journalism, Reportage, and Local Web-Blogs; Sports, Financial, and/or National News Blogging from the perspective of one who simply does not care about the same or from some other unique perspective, by which I mean, Zombies, Werewolf's, and so on. How does the latest uptick in MSFT effect the Vampire community? I just bet you'd like to know. And of course, I am more than happy to do Website Creation, Daily Updates for same, and so on. Then again, my website is done in HTML (no CSS or Drupal for me). So if you're looking for someone to create a Web 2.0 site from scratch (or maintain same), you're looking for someone else. I'm really just a content guy. More better words, be my game.

Anyway, check out: www.paufler.net

And if we're a match, please let me know what you have in mind.
