Taped interview oral tradition - Look but it all backwards looking all wrong How does it end "they lived happily ever after, right?" until, they always leave that off but its Happily ever after until... until when? once upon a time... of course, It's circular - its never ending - there's no way out Look, oral tradition Bards - folks like one folks that, He's going to use this song, He's going to use that - See you more w/ them - Bards telling it two or three times a night a Prince Charming or Sleeping Beauty caught in the middle - You think they don't know what was coming? Tried everything - Summons - Curse summons - Done w/ you - Next time No. write - & its better -

- Note, Part, Archetypal thing they say - Look it simple -
In the Chaucer you get 12 Plats of gold of feet / Castle every day & it still makes up why?

Walk through years (12 years - Golden - Late on a s. loc Plater & the Whamo! Whamo! It happens - the blood -
The flow - The Cycle of Life then builds - You can't stop the Cycle of Life & then no matter how slow to that 12 years - the loop -

TAPED INTERVIEW / Bards drawings out all sorts of scenarios to cover their bases & burn their competitors - Only involve Stories - Do the Best first - See if King would let the story another night - of course cruel King would make the report the same story over - after the used up the bad stuff & burned the track for others - King so & so - real bad... The trick was to stay from the story, because it wasn't even the King's real name - and the could say almost anything as long as the included a red hand, hence Rapunzel... but I've got a time rule against telling Fairy Tales 122 - Assumes familiarity w/ the Tales & Basic Structure - Syllabus is online - I don't have office hours - You will be graded on your contribution to online forums - And a final which will consist of ~~retelling~~ standing up here & telling a fairy tale to the rest of the class - Your grade will depend on how many of your classmates believe to listen to your tale to the end - So you all can get A's, you all can get F's, or those who persist can get A-7 until the last guy is talking to an empty class - fine w/ that? Logistics are... that's right the class are in back via 10M - plenty of empty seats up front - no need to wait in the hall -

This week regular class - Covering Sleepy Beauty, Beauty, the Beauty that sleeps, 100 year bliss - And the Kiss - which should really be called Menses - But that would be too UN-PC. And, as you all know - I am as lazy as can be, so to cover the story I have brought in the one the only - The 13th witch, Evil Fairy Godmother, Vindictive Old Crane - & Star of Bird or Tale - 'Esmeralda'! Let's give her a Hand!

INTRO TO College Class
