The above might not tell you a lot, but everything else that anyone could possibly find pertinent to an entry level programming position can be found on my website, including links to all sorts of coding samples (mostly located towards the bottom of the front page). But if you can't be bothered to link to my website (not just yet, anyway), all that's really relevant is:

I like to code.
I'm going to code.
And the only real question is with whom and on what.

So, if you're intrigued, please drop me a line or give me a call and let's talk. With any luck our passions will collide.

Thank you for your time.
